

South Faddenhill of Fyvie. Aerial photo taken around 1950.

The farmhouse & pond with ducks.

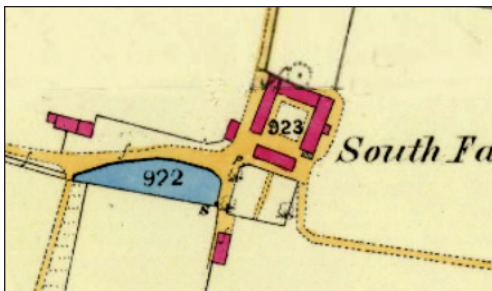

Steading with the old farmhouse.

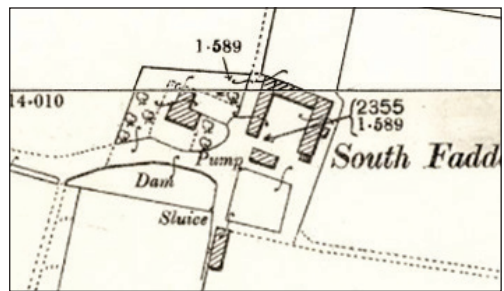

The mill and millwheel.

South Faddenhill 1869

South Faddenhill 1899

1: The Duncan family farm at South Faddenhill of Fyvie.

JOCK'S SONGS

2: Fyvie Loons and Quines, Inverurie Town Hall 1963. Jock with the cattle dog Jocky, the blonde girl is Jock's cousin Lorraine Steel Duncan, leader James Kerman (with the pipe) of New Deer, Margaret Mitchell, Dyce and young Ian Duncan on the pipes.

3: Jock with Geordie Murison, Bill Gray, Joe Aitken & Scott Gardiner at Jock's 90th birthday and 65th Wedding Anniversary, Fisher's Hotel, Pitlochry 20 June 2015.

4: Faddenhill before 1920 with Jock's father on the left and his brother Donald and sister Nellie.

5: Gelliebrae, New Deer in the mid 1920s – Jake Adams on the binder, Jock's mother, a fairm lassie and Geordie Simpson a local crofter.

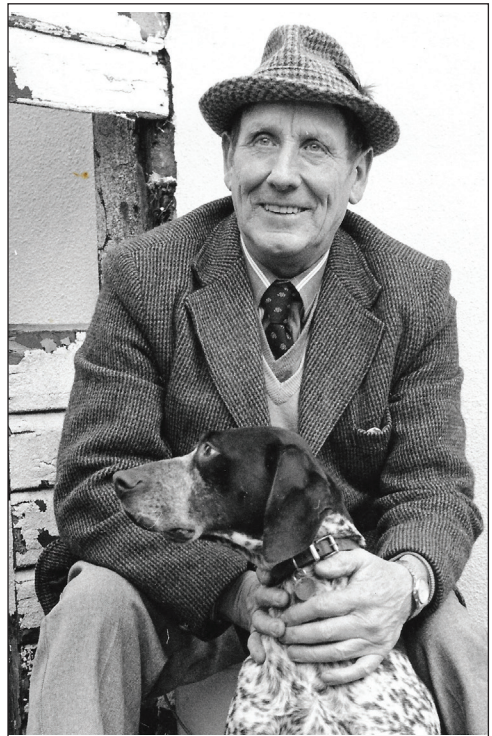

6: The horsemen at Easterton of Oldmeldrum after the hairst in 1901: Four horseman and their pairs and the orra man & beast and boy in the centre.

7: Jock and Frances at their engagement in 1950.

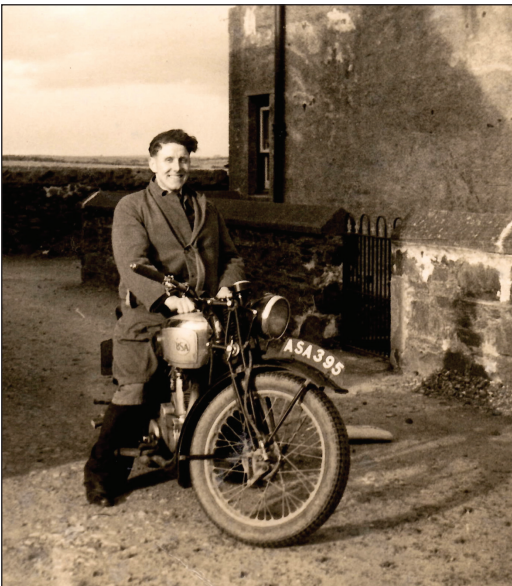

8: Jock on mouthorgan with two neighbours on mouthie and fiddle around 1950.

9: Jock with his dog Moss at his home in Tummel Crescent, Pitlochry around 1995.

10: Jock with son Ian in 1952.

11: Jock on his new BSA motorbike around 1948.

12: Jock Duncan. RAF 1943 at age 17.

13: Jock Duncan: Winner of the Bothy Ballad Brose Bowl at The Macallan 'Bothy Ballad Champion of Champions' competition held at Elgin Town Hall, February 1994. From left to right rear: Raymond Wood, Tam Reid, Douglas Dawson, Joe Aitken, Gordon Easton. Front: Tony Young export manager for The Macallan, Jock Duncan with Joe Aitken assisting Jock to sup from the brose bowl, & Scott Gardiner.

14: Jock was just six years old in 1932 when he heard the Beltona 78rpm recordings of George Morris and Willie Kemp on a wind up record player that his mother brought to South Faddenhill.

15: Jock's mother Margaret and father James with the family at Gellibrae, New Deer c.1928. The boys at the back are Fred and Jimmy (fiddler). Front left Marion (singer), baby Elizabeth, Jock and Margaret.

16: Faddenhill Farms sign at the north end of the farm road to North and South Faddenhill from the Millbrea to New Deer road, 2023.

17: The Faddenhill farm granite cheese press and the wooden cheese chesil used to press the crumbly curds to make the kebbick cheese beneath the press.

18: Jock at Auchtermuchty Festival with Neil Paterson (small pipes), Tommy Bonnar (guitar) & Pete Shephard (melodeon), August 1997.

19: Jock with the 'band' for his first CD: Tommy Bonnar, Brian McNeill, Chris Miles, Aileen Carr, Maureen Jelks & Pete Shephard. September 1995.